

As you review the student's work, make sure all of these items are present.	Points Possible	Points Earned
The paper includes an introductory paragraph that contains a brief description of the two energy sources and the purpose of the paper.	10.0
The paper compares the two sources based on their benefits, limitations, cost of generating electricity, and environmental and human health impacts.	40.0
The paper includes a concluding paragraph that highlights the better choice as supported by information from the analysis.	10.0
The paper includes a list of resources used for research.	5.0
The paper is free of spelling, grammar, and punctuation errors.	5.0
Total	70.0	