FAQs

Once students sign up online for course(s), will they automatically be enrolled?

Students will not automatically be enrolled. Members of the Edgenuity team will complete an additional review and enroll students.

Where do students log in to access their courses?

Use this URL to log in: <http://www.edgenuity.com/SIS-Login>.

How can students make sure their computer has all the necessary plugins for the courseware?

When a student accesses courses for the first time, they will be at the Lobby; to the right is the Organizer. They click on this, and click on Resources, then click on Check Plugins.

Is there an orientation video that explains how to use the Edgenuity courseware?

Yes, when students log in for the first time, they will be automatically directed to watch the orientation video. This video has great information on all the features and tools in the courseware. When they are finished viewing the orientation video, they will automatically go to the Lobby where they can access their courses. If they wish to view the orientation video again, students may access it in the Organizer-Resources-Orientation and How-To.

What if a student does not have an e-mail address and/or phone number on file?

In this case, you should use the school's, mentor's, or counselor's e-mail address and/or phone number.

What if a student does not have guardian information on file?

In this case, you can enter the student's mentor's or counselor's information.

Can I talk to someone who can help me with technical issues?

Yes, you can contact us by phone and by e-mail.
