REAL-TIME DATA

Edgenuity's learning management system provides real-time insight into student achievement, progress, and engagement. The virtual teacher, success coach, and special education coordinator will regularly review data to inform reteaching, enrichment, and other supports. Administrators, mentors, and proctors can access and review data at any time.

INSIGHT & ACCOUNTABILITY

Real-time data gives educators, proctors, and administrators the data they need to ensure students aren't only mastering content, but also logging in regularly and staying actively engaged.

DATA-DRIVEN INTERVENTION

Data is shared to facilitate a team approach to intervention, so students get the face-to-face or virtual support they need, when they need it.

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

Easy to use dashboards and reports make it easy to track program goals. Automatic emails keep other stakeholders updated regularly with key student reports.

CUSTOMIZED TO YOUR NEEDS

Course content and delivery options can easily be customized to match your program goals, or adjusted for small groups or individuals with specific needs. Our virtual teachers collaborate with you to teach to your requirements.

MAXIMIZE RESOURCES

Students in the same room can be recovering credits, completing accelerated courses, or taking courses you couldn't otherwise offer—all at the same time, utilizing resources more efficiently to meet student needs.
